

Data Analyst Intern

Vacancy Type: Part Time (10-20hrs/wk.)
Time Period: September 2015 – May 2016 (possible full time position)
Schedule: Flexible
Pay Rate: $16-$18/hr.
Work Location: NC Highway Patrol Headquarters, Raleigh

Description

Provide answers to questions for assisting the North Carolina State Highway Patrol's Field Operations section achieve its mission. Respond to "requests for information" by collecting and manipulating data, analysis, and presentation and deliver clear, concise and direct answers to questions.

- Identify questions to be answered and communicate action plan to staff
- Collect, manipulate, interpret and present data to answer questions
- Respond and deliver solutions to everyday requests for information
- Translate and communicate data trends to helping the Patrol make better business decisions
- Use software and web based data visualization tools to assist with operational planning and resource allocation efforts

Requirements:

- B.A. or B.S. in GIS, Visual Communications, Informatics or related field
- Strong analytical and critical thinking skills to draw conclusions based on the findings
- Strong communication skills for effectively presenting findings, or translate the data into an understandable media (PDF, web, PPT, print, etc.).
- Comfortable with information technologies used for visual communication of quantitative data

Applicants must be a current student

To apply, provide a resume (include graduation date) to:

Greg Ferrara, Program Manager
Institute for Transportation Research and Education
gpferrar@ncsu.edu